Ms. Pamela Cason
Records Custodian
Governor's Office
State Capitol Building
490 Old Santa Fe Trail
Room 400
Santa Fe, New Mexico 87501

Dear Ms. Cason:

On behalf of my client, Richard E. May, this is an Inspection of Public Records Act request pursuant to NMSA 1978, {14-2-1 et seq.

Please be advised that any and all emails, text messages, and any and all other writings and recordings requested herein that were sent to and/or received via state government, personal, private business, and/or political/campaign email accounts, as well as personal communication devices (i.e. cell phones and iphones) of all current and/or past employees of the Governor's Office, including the Governor, while they are/were employed by the Governor's office are covered under the IPRA.

I respectfully request that all of these documents be provided to me as soon as possible. I also request that all of the documents provided pursuant to this correspondence be provided in electronic or digital format, if possible, to reduce production costs. I would also be pleased to provide reimbursement for any copying costs associated with this IPRA request.

I also respectfully request that any and all records requested that are being withheld be identified by reference to the specific paragraph and subparagraph in which the request is made herein. Further, I respectfully request that for any and all records being withheld that such denial be accompanied by a log which states the date of the public record, the author of the public record, and the recipient(s) of the public record.

Wherever within this request there is a reference to "any and all emails, text messages, and other writings and recordings," it means public record documents as defined in NMSA 1978 14-2-6(F) and as referenced in NMRA 11-1001 as to how the Rules of Evidence define a writing and a recording.
